Tariff Legislation Almost Out of Sight.

BUT SLIM HOPES FOR THE BILL.

Conferees Adjourn Without Fixing a Time of Meeting — Senate Conferees Will Probably Be Recalled to Report the Exact State of Affairs — An Exciting Day Among Tariff Leaders.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—A crisis in the tariff affairs was reached yesterday, both in the open senate and in the secret councils of the Democratic tariff conferees. When the conference closed last night it was with the understanding that the meetings would be suspended for the present. No time was set for reassembling the conferees, and it was felt that no further sessions might be necessary in case the senate acted favorably on Senator Hill's resolution, directing the senate conferees to report the situation of affairs.

What was of more importance was the feeling expressed by the house conferees at the close of the conference that in case the Hill resolution passed—and they believed it would—the conference would practically be relieved of its work and it would remain only for the house to accept the senate bill as a lesser evil, as they believe, than the McKinley law.

These conclusions were reached after a day of intense excitement among the tariff leaders. The day opened with the senate proposition for free sugar still pending before the conference. Chairman Wilson and his house associates were satisfied that the tender of free sugar was not made in good faith, and they had therefore requested the senate conferees to furnish a poll of the senate showing that if the proposition were accepted it would be adopted by the senate and the bill passed.

The poll was considered as soon as the conferees convened. It disclosed that in the event of the acceptance of the free sugar amendment the bill as a whole would be voted against by 38 Republicans and by Senators Kyle, Allen and Peffer (Populists) and Caffery and Blanchard (Democrats), a total of 43 votes or sufficient to kill the bill. This poll was made on the best judgment of the senate conferees. The house accepted it as showing conclusively that the tender of the free sugar amendment, while made in good faith by the senate conferees, was a means adopted by the conservative senators for the purpose of defeating tariff legislation and leaving the McKinley law in force.

The discussion brought out for the first time the statement that the defensive alliance between certain senators had proceeded further than mutual co-operation, and was now reduced to a signed agreement. While members of the conference did not claim to have seen the agreement, they stated as a fact that Senators Kyle, Allen, Peffer, Blanchard and Caffery had reduced their understanding to black and white, and had signed it to the effect that they would vote against any bill which did not contain a bounty clause for sugar. As free sugar would eliminate the bounty provision, the signed agreement was regarded as showing that the five senators combined with the Republicans would defeat the bill.

It was while animated comments were being made on the foregoing conditions that word reached the conference of Senator Hill's coup d'état in the open senate. The conference hastily adjourned, the senators going on the floor to take part in the debate. Mr. Wilson was not disposed to attach much weight to Senator Hill's move at the outset and said that it would be futile as the senate could not act while the bill was in conference. This feeling was shared to a large extent early in the day by house leaders, who characterized it as one of the "bluffs" which had been made of late to demoralize the house conferees and force them to yield.

Late in the day, however, this feeling gave way to one of profound concern over the situation and the future of the bill. At 2 o'clock the conference, or a remnant of it again assembled, with the Hill resolution and the exciting debate thereon, as the main topic among them. All of the house men were present, but Senator Jones was the only senate conferee in attendance for any length of time, and it was said Senator Vest felt indisposed to confer pending the Hill resolution. Little or no attempt was made to take items or schedules, the talk being on the sensational general phases just developed, and no progress was made up to 5 o'clock, when the conference separated without fixing a time for reassembling.

The house conferees no longer disguised the deep concern they felt over the future of the bill. They had made a rough estimate of the vote on the Hill resolution and they felt it would pass. Under these circumstances, they said, nothing could be done until the resolution was disposed of. If through some hopeful turn it was defeated, they said, it would leave the conference to proceed, and the contest would be carried on for the Wilson bill. If, however, it was passed, it would practically discontinue the conference. In that event, the house men stated with satisfaction, they would still be able to avert the complete failure of all tariff legislation by having the house agree to the senate bill.

The senate conferees also regard the situation as very serious, and they separated from their house colleagues in no amiable frame of mind. It would appear that Senator Caffery had been called into the conference during the afternoon by the house members and that the conferees on the part of the Senate accepted this act on the part of the house conferees and others which they did not specify as a reflection upon the senate conferees.

The parliamentarians busied themselves with the house rules to see what remedy the house would have in case the Hill resolution passed. The prevailing opinion was that the house could pass the senate bill at any time. This was the view taken by the conferees. Others insisted that the bill was out of the hands of the house while in conference, and if the senate took any radical step, such as laying the bill on the table, or indefinitely postponing consideration, it would not be within the power of the house to pass the senate bill, and thus consummate tariff legislation.

In case the senate conferees are recalled, the house conferees say they will hold the bill and wait for the Senate to send them other conferees. If the senate does not do so, the house conferees will of necessity report the facts, the bill and the papers back to the house for such action as it may desire to take.

Senator Brice, speaking of the situation last night, said that for the first time he had to admit that the chances for the bill are not good, but he believed that the parliamentary tangle would be straightened out so that the senate bill could be passed. "Brushing aside all parliamentary cobwebs," he said, "and using common sense, there is no reason why the house can not at any time concur in the senate amendments and pass the bill. If the senate should now take some further action like indefinite postponement, it might complicate affairs."

WILL PASS THE SENATE BILL.

A Rumor That the House Members Have Completely Surrendered.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—A special dispatch from Washington says: Since the tariff conference adjourned yesterday evening the house conferees have determined to accept all the senate amendments and get the bill back to the house before the senate can pass a resolution postponing action upon it. The plan is to have the house concur in all the senate amendments and immediately pass separate bills putting sugar, coal and iron on the free list.

This is the program now. It may not be adhered to any longer than any other programs that have been agreed upon, but it is the plan now. Such action would be a complete surrender on the part of the house and the president to the senate and it was a distasteful dose for the house conferees to swallow, but they talked the matter over during the evening, and came to the conclusion there was nothing else they could do.

GIVEN SEVENTY-EIGHT LASHES.

A West Virginia Woman Brutally Bent by Masked Men.

GRANTVILLE, W. Va., Aug. 11.—At a lonely place near Minnow, in the Washington district, 40 masked men raided the cabin of a lone woman named "Sis" King, of doubtful reputation, and dragged the terrified woman from her bed in her night clothes. The raiders stripped her and while one man held her hands, the other 39 men took turns at giving her two blows each with hickory switches, over her bare back. No attempt was made to gag her. After she had been given 78 cuts she was left senseless on the ground.

The outrage has created a great commotion, and the prosecuting attorney is already moving to bring the matter before the grand jury in an effort to indict the assailants, a few of whom are known.

It is said that the whipping was participated in by a number of business men, who stand well in their respective communities.

The people living in the lonely cabins within hearing of the woman's shrieks say they dared not interfere, as they had some intimation of what was being done and who was doing it.

Female Balloonist Killed.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 11.—A horrible tragedy was witnessed by a large crowd of spectators at Glendale park, near this city, yesterday afternoon, about 6 o'clock. Miss Lulu Randall of Detroit, who had for some time past been making balloon ascensions, was almost instantly killed. She ascended safely to about 2,000 feet altitude, and when the signal was given out the parachute loose. It opened and she descended safely until she was about 75 feet from the ground, when the parachute drifted into a tree with such force that she was thrown against a limb and her hold broken loose. She fell to the ground and, though physicians were summoned, died soon after the fall. The remains will be sent to Detroit.

Seven People Killed by Lightning.

DEKALB, Tex., Aug. 11.—About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a crowd of boys and men met in a small prairie, nine miles south of town, and were playing base ball. A shower came up during the game and they all ran to a large oak. Lightning struck the tree and the following were killed outright: John Jacobs, Walter Atchley, Tom Blanchard, Will Hentley, John Jackson, Chris Petty and Will Welsh. About a dozen others were hurt and it is thought some of them will die.

Shot His Sweetheart.

JERSEYVILLE, Ills., Aug. 11.—Last night William Heffron shot and killed Bridget McChale. The young lady was out riding with James O'Laughlin and while he went to get some refreshments Heffron came and shot Miss McChale three times and would probably have killed O'Laughlin had he been in sight. The girl was Heffron's sweetheart and he was jealous of O'Laughlin, and warned the girl if he ever caught them together he would kill them both. Heffron made his escape.

FIGHTING OFF COREA.

Japanese War Vessels Attack a Chinese Fleet.

THE JAPANESE SHIPS REPULSED

An Effort Being Made to Capture a Fort Said to Be Impregnable — Japanese Troops Marching on Seoul — Both Sides Preparing for a Long Struggle — Other War News.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 11.—The following telegram has been received from Chefoo:

A Japanese fleet attacked a Chinese fleet this morning off the harbor of Wei-Hai-Wei, where the Chinese have a fort said to be impregnable. The Japanese ships were repulsed at one entrance to the harbor and they are now attacking the other entrance.

Japanese Marching on Seoul.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The correspondent of The Times at Shanghai telegraphs that 12,000 Japanese troops from Fusan and 8,000 from Yanton are marching toward Seoul, the capital of Corea.

The Tsung Li Yamen, the supreme council of the empire, have guaranteed the safety of foreigners in the interior of China.

War Messages Refused.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—A dispatch from Shanghai says:

The Japanese have expelled the Corean operators from all the telegraph offices in southern Corea and have placed their own operators in charge. Danish operators in the Chinese employ are working the telegraph stations in northern Corea. Messages relating to the war are refused by both sides.

It is computed that China will have 60,000 troops in Corea by the end of September.

Chinese Minister Ceased.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—A dispatch to T Standard from Brussels says: A report has reached here that the Chinese minister, who was recalled from Japan on the declaration of war, has been censured by his government for his dilatory conduct in the negotiations pending with Japan prior to the outbreak of war.

PREPARING FOR A LONG STRUGGLE

All the News One-Sided and Very Unreliable.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—The steamship City of Peking, which arrived yesterday from Hong-Kong and Yokohama, did not have a single Chinese passenger on board. There were only a few Japs. The Chinese government persists in its refusal to allow any Chinese to leave the country.

Among the passengers on the Peking was Lieutenant D. L. Wilson of the United States steamship Baltimore. He states that it is almost impossible to obtain any reliable information of the Corean war, as the government allows very little news of importance to be published, and what the government does allow to become public is so one-sided as to be unreliable. Lieutenant Wilson says both sides are preparing for a long struggle and that time alone will tell what will be the outcome.

UNCARED FOR AND ALONE.

John W. Payne, a Once Prominent Man, Dies in Abject Poverty.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 11.—John W. Payne, said to have been private secretary to Governor Morton of Indiana, who served through the war as captain of an Indiana regiment, and whose brother, W. T. Payne, is said to be a prominent banker of Louisville, died here yesterday friendless and in abject poverty. He came here from Sioux City, Ia., six months ago and made few friends, and but one or two knew his real condition. He rented a small room in an outlying street and lived alone.

He was subject to epileptic fits and it was one of these that carried him off. He was alone at the time and when found presented a pitiable sight. His form, apparently once that of a robust man, was emaciated to a frightful degree. His well worn neatly kept clothes and fine features indicated strongly his condition was inconsistent with his past life. A chair and table constituted the furniture in his room. His relatives have been telegraphed for. Payne is said to have three sons, all of whom are lawyers, living.

Flywheel Burst.

NASHUA, N. H., Aug. 11.—A 30-foot flywheel, weighing 50 tons, in the mills of the Nashua Manufacturing company, burst yesterday afternoon with a report which was heard for miles. The flying pieces of the wheel completely wrecked the engine room and crashed through two floors of the mill. Florence Watts and Mamie Doyle, two employees, were terribly injured, the former probably fatally. The wheel cost $40,000, and the damage resulting from the explosion will exceed $50,000.

"Old Pepper" Knocked Down.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 11.—A fight took place here last night between Judge George B. Kinkead, an Owens man, and Colonel Tom Pepper, known throughout the country for his whisky. Pepper is a Breckinridge man and insulted Judge Kinkead during an argument. Kinkead knocked Pepper down twice, but was taken away by Hull Davidson, ex-mayor of Lexington, who was drinking in the Phoenix hotel wine room with them at the time.

WINE SYNDICATE.

One Formed to Control Four-Fifths of California's Grape Product.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—The big wine syndicate which has been formed here to control the wine business of the state will control 80 per cent of grape product of California for the next five years. Its formation doubles the value of the crop as the present price of grapes is $4 a ton, while the syndicate agrees to pay not less than $10 a ton. Seven houses are in the syndicate, and more will probably be admitted soon. The capital stock of the company is $10,000,000, of which $600,000 have been subscribed. The houses transfer all their assets to the syndicate, but each will preserve its integrity, keeping its labels, trade marks and brands, while doing business as part of the syndicate.

All of the business will be done under the supervision of the board of directors. One branch of the business will be to advance $2,500,000 annually to vineyardists for expenses in cultivating vines, gathering grapes and making wines. It is probable that later a central depot will be established for the storage of wines and brandies. The plan of business of the syndicate is to be advanced 50 years. This move on the part of the wine men of California is expected to revive the languishing industry of the state and make wine growing profitable.

NOTICE TO CROOKS.

Grand Army Veterans at Pittsburg Guarded Protection.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 11.—Superintendent of Police Roger O'Mara has sent out circulars to the head police officials of 15 of the largest cities in the United States, designating the detectives whom he would like to have here during the national encampment of the Grand Army to assist the Pittsburgh police.

The men he has selected are among the best known in the country, and thieves will have a hard time of it in Pittsburgh. The famous Bob Pinkerton is also to be here to give his assistance in the work of protecting the city from the thieving fraternity.

These detectives are not to arrive just at the beginning of the encampment. Superintendent O'Mara wants them here several days before it begins, so that they can look over the city, and all have a consultation as to the plan of work. It is not proposed that the thieves are to have the freedom of the city and not be arrested until they violate the law. The most of them will not see Pittsburgh. Some will not even leave the cities in which they now are.

Great Combine.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—A combine was effected Friday between the Siemens-Holste company, the great electrical institution, the Wells-French Car company and the Grant locomotive works. The capital stock of the new concern is $2,000,000 of which the stockholders of the Grant locomotive works, which failed in June, 1893, will receive 50 per cent. The company will manufacture locomotives, railroad cars and all sorts of electrical devices. The combine is the result of the destruction of the Siemens-Holste company works which were consumed in the recent big lumberyards fire. The works will be located in the suburb of Cicero, where the Grant company's plant now stands and operations will be begun at once.

Armor Plate Testimony.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The investigation of the alleged Carnegie armor plate frauds was resumed Friday. Captain Sampson, the chief of the ordnance bureau of the navy department, was a witness. The principle matter of interest was his opinion of the method of treatment of plates by peaceable, concerning which he said that a plate hardened in one section and softened in another was not to be depended upon. Captain Sampson said a plate could not be considered uniform if specimens from different parts varied 20,000 pounds in tensile strength. In an extreme case a difference of 5,000 or 10,000 pounds might be permitted.

Three New Projects.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The river and harbor appropriation bill, which has been agreed to in both houses, provides for three new projects which have long been sought by the senators who have the credit of securing their adoption. They are a boat railway, to overcome the obstructions at the Duffles of the Columbia river in Oregon and Washington; another is for a canal to connect Lakes Union and Washington with Puget sound, and the third to begin the construction of a lock in the Mississippi river between St. Paul and Minneapolis, to extend the head of navigation to the last named place.

Chickasaw Election.

ARDMORE, I. T., Aug. 11.—In the election for governor in the Chickasaw nation, the full-blooded element refused to recognize or count the vote of the disfranchised citizens, which virtually gives the governorship to Palmer S. Moseley, the independent candidate. The progressive element, whose candidate is Judge Robert L. Boyd, claims that adopted and intermarried citizens in this nation are in the majority, and had their votes been accepted and counted, Judge Boyd would have been elected. They will contest the election and aver Moseley shall never be seated.

Coxeyites Going Home.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—About 60 Coxeyites who have been in camp at Roslyn, Va., started yesterday evening over the Baltimore and Potomac railroad for their homes in California. The men had been furnished transportation, it is understood, by members of the Metropolitan Methodist church in this city.

SPRUNG A SENSATION.

Senator Hill Asks the Recall of the Tariff Conference.

IT ALMOST PASSES THE SENATE

The Resolution Finally Went Over For Further Consideration — The Chinese Treaty Considered but No Action Taken. An Arid Land Project Proposed in the House — Details of the Day's Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Yesterday was the first day in the senate since the tariff was sent a second time to conference that there was any unusual interest in the proceedings. Senator Hill, who has been the central figure in several dramatic scenes during the tariff debate, was again the van of the fray. He offered a resolution directing the tariff conferees to report the difficulties and cause of the failure to agree.

It was almost adopted before the senators fully realized its importance. The conferees were aware of it and were willing it should be adopted. By parliamentary tactics a vote was prevented on the resolution either as presented by Senator Hill or in the form urged by Senator Aldrich. Enough was developed, however, to show the temper of the senate conferees. Senator Vest hoped that it would pass so that the "calcium light might be turned on" and he gave an opportunity to refute the infamous lies that have been told about the conferees on the part of the senators.

A meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Mason County will be held next Monday, August 13, at 11 a.m., at the County Clerk's office. A full attendance is urged.

JOHN C. LOVEL, Secretary.

BRICE's election to the Senate was a scandalous outrage on the true Democracy of Ohio, and he has never reflected any credit upon the party since he was sent to Washington. Buckeye Democrats ought to profit by the lesson, and keep such men as Brice at home hereafter.

The New York Herald of August 6th, in commenting on the Tennessee election, says:

According to our Nashville dispatch, published yesterday, the result of the Tennessee election has "astonished" the Democrats of that State. They did not expect the normally large majority, but were not prepared for such a cutting down as the return shows.

The Herald bluffed too soon. Instead of any "cutting down" in their majority, the Democrats of Tennessee won a bigger victory than in 1892.

ANOTHER VIEW OF IT.
What the State Commissioner of Agriculture Says of the Crop Prospects.

State Commissioner of Agriculture McDowell has issued his monthly crop report. He says that a very large per cent. of the wheat crop of the State has been threshed—fully enough to show that a good crop has been raised. While the yield per acre is not so good in some parts of the State, principally those counties that suffered most from the snow, all the correspondents say that the berry is of a very superior quality. Many farmers are using their crops as they did last year, feeding it to hogs; in fact, some farmers did not harvest their crop at all, but turned their hogs in the field. Very little plowing has been done for wheat as yet, and, from present prices, the farmer has poor encouragement to sow a large crop. The best wheat raisers think that all wheat ground, both soil and stubble, should be plowed as early as practicable, in order that it may settle and become firm before sowing.

As to the outlook for corn, the Commissioner says: "One month ago I reported a prospect for the largest crop of corn ever raised in the State, and I might say, from all reports from other States, the largest in the United States, but a month can make a very great difference in a corn crop. The rains have not been general by any means, and in many places where it has rained there has not been enough to do any good. Reports from a great many counties say 'no rain of any consequence since the snow.' I read very carefully the reports, and find it a very difficult manner to tell which part of the State has suffered most from the want of rain. I rather believe that the western and southern portions have reported more rain than the middle and eastern parts, but the drought seems to be very widespread, not confined to our State alone, but to most of the corn-growing States. The average condition of the crop is placed at 82 per cent."

"All correspondents agree that the early planting of tobacco is doing fairly well, making good growth and prospects of a fair crop, but that the late setting is doing little or no good on account of the dry hot weather. In many places it is firing very badly. The present condition does not indicate a very large crop. The average acreage is placed at 79 per cent. The average condition is placed at 75 per cent.

"From the reports of correspondents all kinds of pastures are unusually short for this time of year. It is not an uncommon thing to commence feeding out stock in September, but not often the case in August. Stock water is reported very scarce in some counties. The condition as reported is 67 per cent.

"The timothy hay crop is very short, but was put in the stack in fine condition. The per cent., as reported, is placed at 68.

"The average yield of oats per acre is twenty-five and one-fifth bushels.

"Reports are good as to stock of all kinds from all parts of the State. No disease of any kind has been reported.

"Remarks as to fruit—generally a failure—some few late apples in some sections. About 75 per cent. of a crop of grapes.

"In many places gardens are seriously injured. Early potatoes will make a fair crop."

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine, one trial will convince you that it has great curative powers in all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs.

A MAGNIFICENT STEAMER.

The White Collar Line Preparing Plans For a Packet That Will Eclipse Hudson River Boats.

A large, magnificent sidewheel passenger steamer that will revolutionize greatly the present cabin accommodations on western and southern steamers, says the Cincinnati Times-Star, has for some time been considered and is about to be constructed by Commodore Lee R. Keck, of the Cincinnati and Memphis division of the White Collar Line. They are at present engaged in examining drawings and have about concluded upon an interior arrangement that will be very elaborate, and do away altogether with the state rooms that have been the style for half a century.

The new steamer is to be built for speed. The main features will be its cabin. The interior will be arranged somewhat similar to a Mann boudoir car with the difference that there will be several tiers of upper sleeping berths, saloon parlors, readings, bath rooms and other conveniences.

There will also be the strictest privacy and no one will know who his upper or lower berth companion is unless special pains to ascertain be made. There will be a double cabin, and where sidewheel passenger steamers with fifty rooms now accommodate 150 passengers, the new berth accommodations on a boat of equal length will stow away for sleeping persons over twice that number. During the day the cabin will be wide and roomy for dancing or promenading. The cabin guards will be widened, and all the berths will look out upon the river over these guards. In a few days it is expected the complete plans will be decided upon, and one of the fastest river steamers that ever turned a wheel will be in course of construction at the marine ways in Fulton.

ANOTHER FALL

Was Given the Maysville Team Friday, This Time By Cynthiana.

The Regulars Lost Yesterday's Game By Loose Playing in the Second Inning.

Cynthiana gave our boys a hard fall yesterday.

The visitors took the lead in the second inning and were never headed.

A quartette of the locals had a very "yellow" day, and loaded the error column.

Willner, a newcomer, was given a trial in the box by the locals and his work was entirely satisfactory. He had excellent command of the ball and plenty of speed, but his good work was offset by the locals' ragged fielding.

Frank's base running for Maysville was the chief feature of the game.

The visitors started business in the second. Two errors, two singles, a base on balls and a passed ball gave them five runs and a lead that was not overcome. They got another man around the circuit in the fourth on hits by Jones and Vetter, Wadsworth's fumble and Curl's long fly to right.

Maysville got a tally in the fifth. Sparks hit past short for a base. Frank ran for Sparks and stole second, and by fast sprinting scored on Bruner's hit to second for an out at first.

Cynthiana got two more scores in the seventh on hits by Vetter and Curl, Cox's error and Murphy's long fly to right. Maysville managed to get a score in their half. Sparks reached first on a hit to short. Frank again ran for him and stole second and scored on Bruner's single.

Curtis' single, Murphy's three-bagger and Jones' sacrifice gave the visitors a couple of runs in the eighth. The locals got two scores in their half of the eighth. Cox worked a base on balls. Rogers smashed one into right for two corners and Cox scored. Frank's hit to short caught Rogers at third. Frank stole second and scored on Nie's sacrifice.

Following is a summary of the game:

A Maysville Student Carries Off the Prizes at the University of the South

The Rev. Mr. Chapin and wife returned yesterday from a sojourn at Sewanee, Tenn., where they went two weeks ago to be present at the graduation of their son, John Ashley Chapin, at the University of the South.

The young graduate's many friends will be very glad to learn that he has had a most successful career there as a student, having completed not only the B. A. degree, but also a post-graduate course, for which he was given the degree of Master of Arts. He also won the highest honor of the year, being appointed valedictorian of his class. In addition to this he won the Price medal, the most coveted prize of the university, for superior scholarship in English literature. His essay on Tennyson's "In Memoriam" also won the cup in the contest between the two literary societies of the university. As further mark of scholarship he has been appointed instructor in the Grammar School, and will remain at Sewanee the coming year.

Young Mr. Chapin has always been noted for his industrious habits and hard work as a student, and his success at Sewanee must be very gratifying indeed to his parents and many friends.

THE UPTON TRAGEDY.

The Court at Vanceburg Decides That William Got No More Than He Deserved.

The examining trial of Edward Upton for killing William Upton, and of John Upton for shooting at Edward with intent to kill, was held Thursday, at Vanceburg, in the presence of an immense crowd of people, before Judge Fryer.

The testimony showed that William Upton had seduced Zada Upton, his first cousin, and the sister of Edward, and had abandoned his wife and children and lived in open defiance of the law with Zada and within two hundred yards of the house of her father, the Rev. John Upton.

The proof also showed that William and John went to Edward's home and William fired his revolver first at Edward and then John fired his shotgun at him. Then Edward opened on them with a Winchester rifle, and killed William, and would have shot at John if his rifle had not refused to discharge the empty shell.

Edward was released but John was held for his appearance at the September term of the Circuit Court.

A SAD ENDING.

WM. TALIAFERRO, of Bracken, Dies at Ripley From an Overdose of Morphine.

BRIEF mention was made yesterday of the death of William Taliaferro, of Bracken County, at Ripley Thursday night from an overdose of morphine.

He was the son of Mr. Lon. Taliaferro, one of Bracken's leading and wealthy farmers.

Physicians worked with him for several hours, but their efforts were unavailing.

Deceased was about thirty-five years old, and when sober was a clever, polished gentleman, writes one of his friends. Some time since he took a course of treatment in the Keeley cure in his endeavor to shake off the evil habit, but he was unsuccessful. Let us throw the broad mantle of charity over his faults and bury them with him, letting only his kind acts and good deeds remain green in our memory.

It is thought that a love affair and some trouble deceased had at Augusta recently led to the suicide. His remains were interred at Sharon Cemetery Friday afternoon.

It is said that Dave Scatterday, late clerk on the Telegraph, will soon start a low water packet in opposition to the Lizzie Bay.

CALL at Ballenger's and see the fine silver water sets he is displaying. And when you want anything in the jewelry line, remember his stock is complete and embraces the very latest novelties.

ALFRED, the little son of "Cap" Dan Gibbs, colored, died at his home on West Third street yesterday at 12 m., of consumption. He was seven years and eight months old. Funeral at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

THE marriage of City Attorney John L. Chamberlain and Miss Maggie P. Sidwell will be solemnized next Wednesday at 3 p. m., at the Christian Church on Lawrence Creek, Rev. W. W. Hall officiating. The bride to be is a daughter of Mr. John B. Sidwell, of Tuckahoe.

THE men's gospel meeting to-morrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock will be conducted by Dr. J. D. Quantz. Subject a practical one, so bring your Bible and help the meeting by saying something. Strangers in our city most cordially invited. Good singing and a blessing assured all.

CORN CROP INJURED.
It has a Telling Effect in the Financial World.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: The advance in corn discloses a general belief that the injury to the most important crop has been so great as to affect materially the traffic of railroads, the demand for manufactured products and the costs of meats for the coming year.

Unless the markets deceive and are entirely deceived, our country will have to face a real calamity in the loss of something like 500,000,000 bushels of corn, and this loss consumers have to share through the advance of 14 cents in two weeks and 9 cents on Friday last week. Neither official nor unofficial statements as yet prelude the hope that the loss may prove less serious, but at current prices 1,500,000,000 bushels would cost as much as 2,000,000,000 bushels would have cost a fortnight ago. Wheat has risen 3 1/2 cents in a fortnight, and 2 1/2 cents during the week, although western receipts have been 5,223,129 against 3,162,694 bushels last year. Atlantic exports are still about half as large as a year ago, 1,399,485 bushels against 2,734,784 last year.

Pork products are a little stronger, as is natural. Cotton has twice risen and again declined a sixteenth with increasing prospects of a very large yield, closing without change for the week.

The iron and steel manufacture records a great increase of nearly 30,000 tons in weekly output in July, and the production is 115,356 tons weekly, about 11,000 tons less than in April, but 8,000 tons more than a year ago, when the prostration had nearly reached its worst. The decrease in unsold stocks was only 6,137 tons for the month, showing a consumption in manufacture not quite equal to the present output. Prices sustain this view, having changed only in the direction of weakness, the disappointing demand for finished products is still the main factor.

The business in boots and shoes is strong and healthy, though conspicuously confined to medium and low priced articles, such as 75 cent shoes for men's and 55 to 60 cents for women's wear, but shipments from Boston have been, in two weeks, 166,692 cases, against 122,826 last year.

The sales of wool would have been larger, according to reports from the different markets, if there had been sufficient stocks available, but amounted to 7,623,400 pounds, at the three eastern markets, against 9,220,700 pounds two years ago. Country holders of wool do not at present appear anxious to let somebody else speculate on its price and are said to be keeping back supplies quite generally, although receipts at Chicago were 4,060,051 pounds for the week, against 1,427,089 for the same week last year.

The failures for the five weeks ending Aug. 1 showed liabilities of $11,144,713, of which $5,620,594 were of manufacturing and $5,220,247 of trading concerns. The failures during the week have been 251 in the United States against 394 last year, and 54 in Canada against 25 last year.

Frelinghuysen Monument Unveiled.
NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 11.—The monument to the memory of Frederick J. Frelinghuysen was unveiled in Military park. The pedestal, which is of pink colored granite, is a gift of the city, and the statue, which is of bronze, and nine feet high, was presented through the efforts of the Newark board of trade. Ambassador Runyon delivered an oration, and the statue was accepted on behalf of the city by Mayor Lebkeucher.

Wanted in Chicago.

Detroit, Aug. 11.—William McCray, a negro who was recently arrested with a number of valuable diamonds on his person, was yesterday identified on a telegram from Inspector Shee of Chicago. He is wanted for stealing cash and $1,000 worth of diamonds from Morris Koenigshof of Selma, Ala., in Chicago, July 29.

Water Famine Possible.

AMELIA, O., Aug. 11.—A feature of the present widespread drought is the water famine now being experienced in this village. It is estimated that there are not more than 3,000 barrels of water in the 300 wells and cisterns here, and, with a daily consumption of 500 barrels, one more week without rain will find the village totally deprived of that necessity.

Cotton Destroyed by Fire.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 11.—Fire in warehouse "B" of the New York Warehouse company, which held 6,000 bales of cotton, caused a loss on the cotton estimated at $40,000 and on the building $10,000. The warehouse is fully insured. The insurance on the cotton can not be learned.

Jumped the Track.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 11.—Passengers on the Delaware accommodation, due here at 4:30, had a narrow escape from a frightful accident. While running at a terrific speed the engine left the track on the curve, but fortunately remained upright and ran along the ties until stopped.

ABERDEEN.

Items of Interest From Our Sister City—The Brown County Teachers' Institute Adjourns.

O. Lurley, of Washington, was in town this week.

Dr. T. Heaton has beautified the outside of his office.

Don't forget the Aberdeen fair September 19th and 20th.

P. N. Bradford has put up a neat office at the flour mill.

The institute ball was well attended and lasted until near morning.

Captain William Clephane and wife were in Georgetown Thursday.

Charles Sibbald and family, of Cincinnati, are visiting relatives here.

Miss Ethel Games, of Isett, was the guest of Miss Sallie Midgill Friday.

Professors Inman and Stevenson, teachers here last year, attended the institute.

A new enlert has been made on Second street. It is a much needed improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rains were called here by the illness of their little daughter, Ola.

Miss Maude Adair, of Maysville, who was the guest of Miss Anna Hudson, has returned home.

Superintendent W. G. Griffith was untiring in his efforts to assist the institute all in his power.

Quite a number of friends of the teachers accompanied them to the steamer M. P. Wells last evening.

About two hundred teachers and their friends had a delightful excursion on the Lawrence Wednesday evening.

Quite a number of Maysville teachers attended the institute; among them we noticed Misses Lucy and Florence Wilson.

Tuesday night J. C. Liggett, of Ripley, lectured. It was one of the best of the session, and was greeted by a packed house.

C. O. Patton, Republican nominee for County Surveyor, was in town this week calling on his friends and attending the institute.

Dr. Nelson, of Delaware, O., lectured Friday night on "Ghosts That I Have Seen." It was well chosen and the crowd who turned out to hear him filled the church.

The institute will be held at Russellville next year. The forecast was warm to take it to other towns, but Russellville was the choice of the majority of the teachers and won in a walk.

The institute is over and most of the teachers left Friday evening. They were a very social set of people, and we hope they may no more again in the near future bring the institute here again.

The following are the officers of the institute for the coming year:

President—W. R. Johnson.

Vice President—J. W. Smith.

Secretary—Miss Belle Young.

Treasurer—A. J. Kirkskaden.

The election was also warmly contested.

PARKS' HILL CAMP MEETING.

Eloquent Ministers Preaching the Gospel of Good Tidings and Great Joy.

The Deering camp meeting goes on with unabated interest.

Rev. Geo. Stewart won all hearts. As a preacher he is unique. Sharp, pointed, crisp, abounding in apt illustrations, he carried his congregations by storm; they laughed and then cried, cried and then laughed, and then laughed and cried at the same time, and then by some flight or some beautiful comparison he would thrill the hearts of the hearers and make them feel that the angel of glory had come to camp on. Deering camp ground.

Dr. Morris, of St. Paul Church, Cincinnati, preached two excellent sermons Thursday. Cultured, refined and elegant, he is the prince among preachers. His sermon Thursday morning on the text, "A bruised reed will he not break and smiting flax will he not quench," &c., breathed the very tenderness and sweetness of the gospel. The sermon while tender was exceedingly strong. At night he preached on the text, "Cast all thy care upon God." A delightful sermon. Dr. Morris will remain over Sunday.

Rev. Dr. W. G. Miller, of Broadway Church, Louisville, came Thursday night and will also remain over Sunday. So the public may be assured of good preaching any time.

We have a nice set of campers and everything indicates the most prosperous and delightful camp meeting that has been held on these grounds. The gate fee through the week has been reduced to 10 cents. Come and enjoy a few days at this feast of tabernacles.

Rev. Dr. Miller, who came in Thursday, conducted a children's meeting Friday afternoon which was largely attended by the young folks on the grounds. The children voted unanimously for a special meeting for them every afternoon. The cloudy afternoon Friday made it very pleasant on the grounds.

A visit to the mineral well is becoming popular with the campers, and numerous are the parties seen when the afternoon services are over or after supper hour who take this stroll over the Cassiday suspension bridge to the well. In fact, the water drinks better at the well than it does after it is piped to the grounds. At this writing we can hardly see where the Saturday night camp will be lodged, since the cottages are so much nearer filled by regular tenters, some to stay the whole time, while others are here from a few days to a week or more.

The following Mason County campers have arrived since our last report: Meadmen Worthington, Kinnard and Biggers, of Murphysville, and Mrs. Robert Watson, of Shannon.

TOWN DESTROYED BY FIRE.
